SEPTEMBER 2009 SHOW

What's up, everybody?! Hope you've had a fantastic Summer and are ready for a new season. We've got a terrific show here for you; we think you're going to really enjoy it. Speaking of enjoyment, I've recently been out and about to catch some of your new Bday parties...wow! GREAT JOB! I've seen some lively Chuck E's out there...and some exceptional Cast Members. A lot of you are really settling into this new Bday experience quite well. What has been the common denominator with the successful shows I've seen? Well...the Cast understands that it's all about the BDay Star! That's it! And another key ingredient to the success I've seen in the field is FUN. The Cast just has a ton of fun with our guests. When you have a good time, people notice...and that affects our guests in a positive way.

Just FYI, the old Birthday show will no longer be accessible with the new show. So, if you've been reluctant to embrace the new experience, hold off no more! It's time to dive in and give our Bday Stars what they deserve...a TERRIFIC Birthday party!

In order to help you all with your new shows, we flew down to Fort Myers, FL where the cast has done an outstanding job, not only with the new show, but with how they actually get the guests involved in the whole program. Look for this video very soon. Produced by yours truly, the Entertainment Dept, and delivered via Training, it will surely give your Bday Parties the boost they may need to take them from good to GREAT!

The key to making our guest have a good time and experience their short stay at Chuck E. Cheese's is for us to have good time as well. If we're happy, it will overflow onto our guests. I am so BLESSED to work for CEC...not just because it's a cool job, but because of people like you guys in the field. You rock! I appreciate all that you are doing to make Chuck E. Cheese's such a fabulous company. Keep having fun. Remember, life is short; enjoy every second.
